AGRA

- Taj Mahal – One of the world's most iconic monuments Mughal architecture on the right bank of the river Yamuna in the Indian city of Agra. It was built by Emperor Shah Jahān to honor his wife Mumtāz Mahāl who died in 1631 giving birth to their 14th child. It took about 22 years and 20,000 workers to construct the complex, which includes an immense garden with a reflecting pool.
- Agra Red Fort – also known as the massive Lal Qila. Built in Redstone by Mughal Emperor Akbar. A palatial city, it comprises of exquisite sections of Sheesh Mahal (Glass Palace), Jahangir's Palace, Diwan-i-Am (Hall of public and aristocracy interaction), Diwan-i-Khas (Hall of private audience), Mina Masjid (Heavenly Mosque) and Nagina Masjid (Gem Mosque). It houses 85 square, geometrically arranged bonny lush gardens.

JAIPUR

- Jaipur – In order to welcome the visit of Prince of Wales, all the buildings in the old city were painted pink. Jaipur divided into old city and new city. Most of the old city is the location of the pink city.
- City Palace Jaipur - the grand palace complex of City Palace which is also the residence of the royal family of Jaipur. City Palace showcases the splendid legacy of the royal family and its ancestors. The complex includes Chandra Mahal and Mubarak Mahal.
- Amer Fort - Constructed in 1592 with red sandstone and marble, this beautiful fort faces the Maota Lake. This large opulent fort constituted four prominent segments. The ceiling of Sheesh Mahal is carved with tiny mirror pieces, and it is said that the house gives beautiful vistas of Maota Lake. Interestingly, this fort even has a thrilling tunnel right behind the women's quarters which leads to the Jaigarh Fort.
- Hawa Mahal - also known as Palace of Winds, in the center of Rajasthan's capital. It was designed by Lal Chand Ustad and completed in 1799. The iconic structure reflects the maharaja's devotion to Lord Krishna as its honeycomb pattern resembles the Hindu god's crown. A honeycomb with its 953 small windows decorated with intricate latticework. Through this screen a kind of architectural veil, women of the royal household gathered on the upper floors of the five-story palace to watch street festivals below and freely view the bazaar and its vibrant proceedings unseen while they remained invisible to the outside world.

NEW DELHI

- India Gate - Iconic and majestic arch gate in Delhi commemorates the undivided British army soldiers who laid down their lives during World War I and the 3rd Anglo-Afghan War of 1919. It is a War Memorial situated in the Rajpath area of Delhi.
